

NANCY GOOD

Biography

Contemporary fine art photographer/mixed-media artist Nancy Good is based out of Las Vegas, NV. Successfully combining artistic approaches including (but not limited to) infrared & digital photography, paints/glazes/inks, print-making, textile design, digital software, and recycled/re-purposed materials, Nancy creates unusual and unexpected images of often familiar subjects, inviting viewers to take a deeper look at the world around them. Her published and award-winning work has regularly been seen in exhibits across the country in high profile locations such as Las Vegas City Hall, UNLV's Donna Beam Fine Art Gallery, UNLV's Marjorie Barrick Museum of Art (permanent collection), Nashville International Airport, Nashville Convention & Visitors Bureau, Bridgestone Arena in Nashville, Tennessee, Contemporary Arts Center in Las Vegas, Life is Beautiful Festival and galleries in the Southeast, New York, Montana, Nevada and California.
